

Christopher Dresser: Complete Picnic Set

Inventory Number :240-102

Size: Box: 11 3/4 ins wide, 6 1/2 ins deep and 5 ins high

All pieces in silver plate comprising a kettle and lid, kettle stand, burner and lid, tea pot and lid, milk jug, sugar or waste bowl and an additional fuel bottle to supply the burner. Together with the original blue velvet lined oak carrying box. Each piece (except for the later fuel bottle) engraved with the crest of a dove with an olive branch to the beak.

This particular design was rather popular and was produced well into the 20th century. This set, however, is an early example with the principal pieces stamped "Designed by Dr. C. Dresser" along with the maker's mark for Hukin and Heath. The pieces also have the design number 2109 and the product registration mark for the 9th October 1879.

An early and fine set.

Hukin and Heath, c. 1880

Condition: Fine with replaced caning to both the kettle and tea pot handles.
