

A Very Rare Long Set of Sixteen George III Brass Inlaid Dining Chairs

Description

Comprising four armchairs and twelve side chairs this set is of elegant design with superb quality brass inlay, caned seats and saber legs. Very possibly by John Gee, a London chair-maker who specialized in intricate brass inlay in the French taste. Two arm chairs and six side chairs are inlaid in the Boulle manner of à parti and the remaining chairs in contra-partie, making them the first set of English chairs we have seen decorated in this manner. Each chair with a slip cushion in the manner of the period.
