

Elm and Oak Milking Stool

Inventory Number :200-130

Size: 15 1/4 ins wide, 8 ins deep and 16 1/2 ins high

The thick D-shaped elm seat raised on four ring turned splayed legs. This is a classic example of repurposed timber with the legs displaying un-explained screw holes and the seat being cut at odd angles, but being remarkable successful for a humble vernacular piece. Very good patina.

England c. 1800
