

Fine Regency Brass Mounted Writing Table Probably by George Bullock or His School

Description

Of small proportions this classic mahogany writing table retains its original leather insert, has a single drawer and a finely cast brass gallery. The construction is interesting with a single column, double c-scroll base and casters. The classic ebony inlay adds a distinctive Regency decorative element to this piece.

England, Probably London, 1810

Meta Fields

Sku : 200-111 Price : 12500